Relaxation

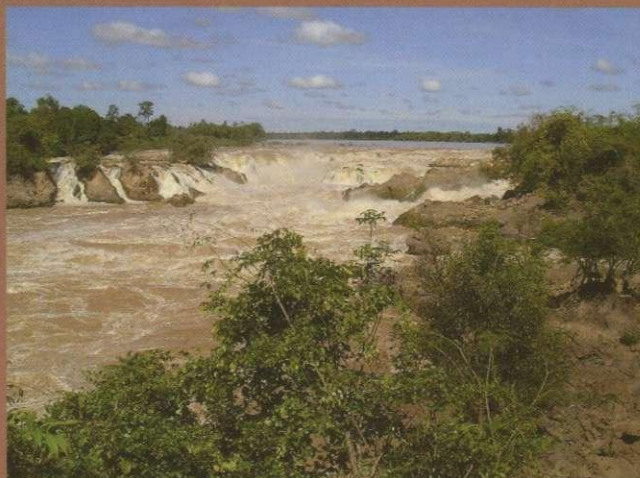

A stroll in the tranquil landscape garden, a dip in the pool or a visit to our spa are ideal ways to relax after a day of discovery and exploration

The Emerald Gateway to Indochina

The exotic mysteries of greater Mekong countries have attracted travellers for centuries. Laos is one of the undiscovered gems of Southeast Asia - wilder than Vietnam, less developed than Thailand, with a serenity bred out of its deepest Buddhist religion. The joy of travel in this lovely, landlocked country is the thrill of visiting one of Asia's least known destinations.
